DEADLINE: 15 February 2023

Zagreb, 25th January 2023

Dear Members,

We are delighted to announce that the 2023 IWCZ Artistic Hands Exhibition will take place this Spring (22 March – 13 April 2023) at the Hungarian Cultural Centre, Ulica Augusta Cesarca 10, in Zagreb.

This annual exhibition now in its seventh edition showcases the many artistic talents of our members and is proving a highly appreciated event of our Club life and of the Zagreb Art Scene. It is a fun, high quality group exhibition valued for its originality as it gathers and connects artists reflecting the very diverse international backgrounds of our members and working in a wide range of media, from sculpture to painting, via ceramics, illustration, paper works or photography.

If you are an artist, professional or amateur, gifted with your hands in whichever creative way and would like to participate to the next IWCZ Artistic Hands Exhibition, please fill in the attached form and return it before February 15th 2023 at artistichands@iwcz.hr.

Please note:

- Given the scale of the logistical undertaking that organising such a large group exhibition requires we regret that no late application will be considered. Fortunately, Artistic Hands is a yearly exhibition and more opportunities to exhibit will arise in the future.
- The firm deadline of February 15th for this “Call for Artists” will enable us to assert the number of participating artists and the nature of the works (3D, 2D etc) that might be exhibited.
- The possibility to exhibit is conditional to the artist being a fully paid IWCZ member on the day the “Call for Artworks” closes (1 March 2023).

The Hungarian Institute is large and we are delighted that we can allocate a display space of roughly 2mx2m for those of you exhibiting wall art and 2mx1m for those who will require table display. This is an approximation and we will have to judge on the day how best to display everybody's work in the most aesthetic and fairest way possible.

Please make sure your membership remains up to date.

- Your participation fee of €40 will be collected on March GM. This will cover the costs of printing posters, small brochures, a photographer, as well as drinks and waitering services for the Opening Night.
